the overall goal is to enhance the life of the beneficiary and provide goods and services that are not paid by medicaid, medicare or other government agencies it's not so heavily about looks in men (though getting fat is bad for men too), and the somewhat weathered look works for lots of men.